Borgo Cenaioli In a historic building located in an old country village we find these four apartments set over two levels plus commercial premises set on the ground floor currently being used as a small restaurant. The area where the complex is located is in quiet countryside, but just a few hundred metres from the shores of Lake Trasimeno. It is just outside the small village of Sant'Arcangelo where all the primary services can be found. The accommodation consists of four apartments located on the second and third floors of the building and accessed via a common stone staircase.
